

Please do not change the existing Indiana law as it pertains to phone solicitations. It was so relieving to have those annoying unsolicited calls stop when this law went into effect. My husband owns a business & we got dozens of those calls daily. I began to hate the telephone. Please don't let them change it.